

DOMINIC MANCUSO

Singer | Songwriter | Producer

Dominic Mancuso has spent the last 20 years cultivating his signature sound, a fusion of Rock, Jazz, R&B and World – peppered with his distinctive rasp; earning himself a Juno & Canadian Folk Music award in the process.

A consummate storyteller, Mancuso weaves a tapestry of texture with his rich, deeply expressive voice. Swooping and soaring through his narratives, he transcends a range of emotions - touching the very essence of your soul.

Inherently a humanist at heart with a fierce passion for his craft, Mancuso has the uncanny ability to viscerally connect and captivate his audience. He must be experienced. He must be explored. You will enjoy.

His band, Dominic Mancuso Group (DMG) is comprised of some of the most forward-thinking musicians in Canada, together they create a rich blend of adult contemporary music.

“Dominic Mancuso is one of the most distinctive voices in music. He is a paramount storyteller; a premier griot of these times. He wails with the best. He cries the blues from the depths of his soul — bringing great measures of duende to the music. His Juno Awarded Comfortably Mine is a rare album indeed, quite simply one of a kind.”

- Raul da Gama, All That Jazz